INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

End-of-life care for older people in long-term care facilities

Kraków, POLAND 31.03 -01.04.2017

Conference organized in the PACE project "Comparing the effectiveness of PAliative Care for Older People in long-term care facilities in Europe"

ORGANISER

The Chair of Epidemiology and Preventive Medicine UJCM

The Chair of Internal Diseases and Gerontology at Medical Faculty UJ CM

UNIWERSYTET JAGIELLOŃSKI W KRAKOWIE

Medical Centre of Postgraduate Education at the Jagiellonian University

UNIWERSYTET JAGIELLOŃSKI MEDYCZNE CENTRUM KSZTAŁCENIA PODYPLOMOWEGO UNIWERSYTETU JAGIELLOŃSKIEGO

HONORARY PATRONAGE

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF EAPC

EAPC ONLUS

PATRONAGE

KOLEGIUM LEKARZY SPECJALISTÓW GERIATRII W POLSCE

POLSKIE TOWARZYSTWO GERONTOLOGICZNE

MEDIA PATRONAGE

medycyna praktyczna

terMedia

DAY 1 – 31ST MARCH 2017
PRESENTATION OF THE PACE PROJECT RESULTS

Ceremonial openig of the conference
Prof. Tomasz Grodzicki, MD, PhD – Vice-Rector of the Jagiellonian University for the Medical College

SESSION 1 – 9.15-10.30
Mission of palaitive care in long-term care facilities

- Main objectives of the PACE project Assoc. Prof. Katarzyna Szczerbińska, Jagiellonian University Medical College
- Quality of life of older people at the end of life
  Prof. Beata Tobiasz-Adamczyk, Chair of Epidemiology and Preventive Medicine in Jagiellonian University Medical College
- European developments in palliative care: the impact of demographic changes Prof. Sheila Payne – Emeritus Professor in Palliative Care, Previous-President of the European Association for Palliative Care, UK

SESSION 2 – 11.00-13.00
Quality of care for older people dying in long-term care facilities – Internatilnal context (in English)

- Mapping palliative care developments in LTCFs: An European perspective
  Prof. Katherine Froggatt, Lancaster University, United Kingdom
- Quality of end-of-life care for residents dying in long-term care facilities in six EU countires. Results from the PACE study 1
  Prof. Lieve van den Block, Vrije University of Brussels, Belgium
- Quality of care for patients dying with end-stage dementia.
  Prof. Harriet Finne-Soveri, National Institute for Health and Welfere, Finland
- The development and implementation of the "PACE Steps to Success" training manual Dr Jo Hockley Lancaster University, United Kingdom

SESSION 3 – 14.00-15.00
Challenges of caring for older people dying in care homes and nursing-care facilities in Poland

- Knowledge and attitiudes of the personel regarding care for dying patients in long-term care facilities in Poland. Results from the PACE study 1
  Ilona Barańska, MPH, PhD student, Jagiellonian University Medical College
- Care for dying patients as an organizational and educational challenge in care facilities – perspect of facilities' directors - discussion panel
  Directors of NHs, Municipal Centre of Social Welfare, Regional Centre of Social Welfare
- Challenges and benefits associated with implementation of the programme "PACE Steps to Success" in Poland – perspectives of the trainers and coordinators of the programme in care facilities
  Justyna Koniczuk-Kleja, MSc, Marta Kubik, RN, Elżbieta Wesołek, MSc

WORKSHOPS FOR PARTICIPANTS – 15.30-18.30

The programme "PACE Steps to Success" – Implementing the six steps of care for dying patients in long-term care facilities.

DAY 2 – 1ST APRIL 2017
CARE FOR DYING RESIDENT IN CARE FACILITY "CHOOSING WISELY"

SESSION 1 - 8.00-10.00
Recommendations regarding treatment of patients with somatic diseases in long-term care

- Aspects of infection control in long-term care
  Assoc. Prof. Jadwiga Wójkowska-Mach, Jagiellonian University Medical College
- How to avoid persistent theraphy in patients in long-term care facilities
  Assoc. Prof. Małgorzata Krajnik, Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń
- Primum non nocere – rules of pharmacotheraphy regarding patients in nursing and care home
  Assoc. Prof. Barbara Gryglewska, Jagiellonian University Medical College
- Procedures in the treatment of urinary disorders
  Prof. Jerzy Gąsowski, Jagiellonian University Medical College

SESSION 2 – 10.30-12.00
Aspects of palliative care for patients in long-term care

- Quality of palliative care i long-term care in Poland – results from the PACE study 1
  Assoc. Prof. Katarzyna Szczerbińska, Jagiellonian University Medical College
- End-of-life care for people with dementia in Poland – a challenge for LTCF facilities and families. Results from the PACE study 1
  Violetta Kijowska, MPH, Jagiellonian University Medical College
- Specific challenges for palliative care in patients with advanced heart failure in long-term care
  Piotr Sobański, MD, Palliativzentrum Hildegard, Bazylea
- The use of sedation in residents in long term care facilities
  Iwona Filipczak-Bryniarska, MD, PhD, MD, Jagiellonian University Medical College

SESSION 3- 13.00-15.00
End-of-life care

- Challenging symptoms in older people at the end of life – pain and depression
  Iwona Filipczak-Bryniarska, MD, PhD, MD, Jagiellonian University Medical College
- Hydration and nutrition of patients at the end of life
  Teresa Weber, MD, PhD, University Hospital in Kraków
- The last 48 hours of life – symptom control at the end of life
  Agata Adamkiewicz-Piejko, MD, PhD, Jagiellonian University Medical College
- Coping with bereavement and grief
  Justyna Koniczuk-Kleja, MSc, Jagiellonian University Medical College

Venue: Nowodworska Hall
Jagiellonian University
Medical College
12 Św. Anny Str., Kraków, POLAND

Registration: till 28 February 2017 r.
registration form available at:
www.mckp.uj.edu.pl

Fee:

1. Participation in the conference
   Early bird (till 31.12.2016 r.) – 200 PLN
   Regular (from 01.01.2017 r.) – 300 PLN
2. Participation in the workshop – 100 PLN

Number of participants is limited.
First come first served.

Conference office:

Medical Centre of Postgraduate Education
at the Jagiellonian University
20 Grzegórzecka Str., 31-531 Kraków, POLAND
phone: +48 12 433 27 61, fax. +48 12 429 22 13
Email: konferencjemckp@uj.edu.pl
www.mckp.uj.edu.pl

www.eupace.eu http://www.epi.cm-uj.krakow.pl/eupace_pl/

Project PACE "Comparing the effectiveness of PAlliative Care for Older people in long-term care facilities in Europe" has received funding from European Union's Seventh Framework Programme for research, technological development and demonstration under grant agreement no 603111. Project co-funded from the sources for scientific research and knowledge for years 2014-2019 dedicated for the international project funded from EU sources (decision Ministry of Science and Higher Education NR3202/7.PR/2014/2 from November 25th, 2014).

Konferencja współfinansowana ze środków
Wydziału Lekarskiego UJ CM
Krajowego Naukowego Ośrodka Wiodącego
2012-2017

UNIWERSYTET JAGIELLOŃSKI COLLEGIUM MEDICUM WYDZIAŁ LEKARSKI

KNOW